10. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information.

11. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the eighth session of the Committee at which their respective reports will be examined and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee at which their reports will be examined.

Item 5. System of documentation and information

12. Under this item, the Committee may wish to continue discussing issues relating to the system of information and documentation relevant to the work of the Committee, including the question of the establishment of a computerized network. The Committee may also wish to pursue the discussion started at the consultative meeting on 9 October 1993, organized in cooperation with UNICEF, and continued during the follow-up consultative meeting on an information and documentation system to support the implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, held at the Centre for Human Rights on 19 January 1994.

Item 6. General discussion on "The girl child"

13. In accordance with rule 75 of its provisional rules of procedure, the Committee decided, at its seventh session, that at its next session a day of general discussion would be held on Monday, 23 January 1995, devoted to the topic of the girl child, and agreed to invite interested bodies and agencies and individual experts to participate in that general discussion. Invitations were dispatched by the secretariat to relevant organizations and individuals on 7 November 1994.

Item 7. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

14. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion on ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 8. Methods of work of the Committee

15. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance, and the urgent procedure.

16. Under this item, the Committee will have before it a note by the Secretary-General on areas identified by the Committee for technical assistance and advisory services (CRC/C/37).

Item 9. Future meetings of the Committee

17. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 10. Other matters

18. Under this item, members may wish to discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.

COMMITTEE ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD
Eighth session
Geneva, 9-27 January 1995

Note by the Secretary-General

1. The Committee on the Rights of the Child has on several occasions emphasized the importance it attaches to areas where technical assistance would seem appropriate in a particular country, as arising from the consideration of a State party's report, and in the light of the provisions of article 45 (b) of the Convention.
2. A table indicating areas in which the need for technical advice and advisory services has been identified in the light of the observations adopted by the Committee at its third to seventh sessions is to be found in the annex to the present document.
